THE STAFF WISHES TO EXPRESS ITS APPRECIATION AND THANKS TO MISS STURTEVANT AND THE ART DEPARTMENT FOR THEIR GENEROUS CO-OPERATION AND UNTIRING EFFORTS IN MAKING THE ARTWORK FOR THE "1923 ARGUS" A SUCCESS. ¶ IT IS OF A TYPE AND STANDARD FROM AN ARTISTIC POINT OF VIEW WHICH HAS NEVER BEFORE BEEN EQUALED.

Foreword

AS REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CLASS AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS PERSONALITY, THE STAFF OF AND CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ARGUS ANNUAL HAVE LABORED TO SUSTAIN A DEGREE OF EXCELLENCE THAT WILL NOT BE UTTERLY UNWORTHY OF THE 1923 SENIORS. ADMITTING ON ALL POINTS OUR FAILURE TO REACH OUR IDEALS WE ARE, HOWEVER, SUFFICIENTLY CONFIDENT IN SUBMITTING TO THE PUBLIC THE MODEST PAGES WHICH FOLLOW.

The Old High School

THE student body of O. H. S. will miss their old building even though they are looking forward to the enjoyment of the many different conveniences of the new building. Since the year 1901, the same building has harbored the students of O. H. S. and has been a place of which they may well be proud. It has served its full purpose and has instilled into the minds of many, the old maxim, "Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much, Wisdom is humble that he knows no more," which is placed above the entrance, where all may see it.

No matter how long the students are in the new building O. H. S. will always be to some, the large brown, stone structure on West Fourth St. Pleasant memories of the worthwhile years spent there will ever be present in the minds of those who were graduated from it, and who look upon it as their Alma Mater.

The New High School

THESE STUDENTS, unfortunately enough, have not completed their High School education in the new building are looking forward to the finishing of it with much expectation.

At the great expense and sacrifice of the taxpayers of the city, Ottumwa can boast of the finest high school building in the state and one of the finest in the Mississippi valley. Bonds, to the amount of $750,000 were voted and issued in 1921-1922 and are the means of paying for its erection.

The site for the building is the finest that could be procured by the city. It is on a hill, which makes the large clock one of the many features visible to most of the city. It is very centrally located, as it is accessible from all parts of the city.

The fine auditorium with its seating capacity of fifteen hundred and its well equipped stage will fill a long felt need in the community.

Physical training outside of athletics has been lacking in O. H. S. for a number of years. This has been due to the fact that all space was needed for classrooms. The gymnasium and swimming pool in the new building will develop another side of life in the student. The home rooms which will take the place of the assembly room, will afford a greater personal touch between the student body and the faculty.

More can be accomplished individually and as a whole by the students because of the many advantages which will be afforded. It is only fair that more effort be put forth, as this is one way in which the students can show their deep appreciation for the great gift of the city of Ottumwa to them.

FACULTY

MR. L. H. BRENNEMAN

Mr. Brenneman has very successfully filled his position as principal of the main high school for three years. He is friend as well as instructor to all who know him.

He has shown great ability in organizing the school to meet the demands of crowded conditions and has won the respect of the public as well as the student body.

The Seniors are especially indebted to Mr. Brenneman for his timely advice. He has given freely of his time and thought that they might prosper and the success of this class is due in a large measure to his advice.

MISS CLARA B. ENOCH
SENIOR CLASS ADVISOR

Miss Enoch has, for two years, been the successful guiding star for the class of 1923. As teacher and friend, she has been untiring in her efforts for the class and has won the love and admiration of every member of the class of '23. She has helped them over the rocks of difficulty and has been with them in this the last venture of the class. The Seniors hope that this will in some measure express the appreciation which the class feels for Miss Enoch.

1923 Class Song

*You may sing the praises of your different classes,
Of our dear old O. H. S.;
Of eighteen you may boast
To nineteen sing a toast,
To 'twenty or whichever one you please
You may tell the story of your twenty-tuos,
Or any other one you try.
It makes no difference to me
Its as plain as can be
That there's just one class for me*

CHORUS

*And it is 1923 our twenty-three, Oh
That's the class that I call mine,
It's the class of spirit,
It's the class of merit,
It's the class where boys and girls are always full of pep,
In the Springtime or in the Summer,
In the Fall or Winter-time,
I shall not forget her, but will love her better,
For its 'twenty-three for mine'*

*We have worked and we have played for all thats in us,
In all our high school course,
Now we are almost done,
We've had a lot of fun,
We'll have to leave you soon we're sad to say
But whenever we are asked what class we claim
We'll all be proud to say
No matter when it is,
Or wherever we are,
That there's just one class for us*

History of the Class of 1923

One beautiful June day in the year 1948, as I was wandering through the Ottumwa Public Library looking through the countless books, my attention was attracted by one book which was noticeably more tattered and torn than the rest. As this had always been a sign to me that a book was especially good, I stopped to investigate such an evidently popular book. The cover was so badly worn that I could not make out the title of it. Looking on the front page I was surprised to read "published in the year 1948 in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation of the class of 1923." Wonders of wonders—this book had been published this very same year and it had obviously already gained popularity! However, I did not wonder longer when turning to the title page I read "History of the Class of 1923"—a play in four acts. This is a summary of what I read:

"HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1923"

A Tragedy in Four Acts

ACT I.

Scene 1. TIME—First semester, 1919

The month of September, 1919, marked the beginning of a rugged but successful journey of the 1923 class. Owing to the crowded conditions of the main High School, the freshmen spent their first semester at the Junior High School.

Scene 2. TIME—Second semester, 1920

Having gained sufficient knowledge of high school life, this famed class was permitted to enter that activity building of learning, which was situated on Fourth Street. In such a spacious building it is but natural that little boys would act rather green. However, after a few weeks experience, the twenty-three's overcame their timidity and grew accustomed to their new surroundings. At the first class meeting they showed good judgment in the selection of their class officers. Clair Grooms was elected President and Marion Rambo was chosen as the Vice President of the class. Irwin May was ordained to be Secretary and Thomas Sexton was declared Treasurer. Miss Gilling was selected for class advisor. This selection was indeed a good one for Miss Gilling proved herself very competent in guiding the class on their rugged road to success. It was in this year that Skinny Grooms and Marvin Gookin started their careers as "foot-ballists" and Marvin began his as a basketball player. Clair Grooms, John Warren, Harry Von Schrader and Marvin Gookin represented the class in track. In June all studies were forgotten and a peppy party was held at the K. of C. hall.

ACT II.

Scene 1. TIME—First semester, 1920.

After several months of vacation this noted class came back to high school with even more pep than had been displayed the year before. At the class meeting, Forest Ross was chosen to fill the office of chief executive of the class and Frank Clark was elected Vice President. Jeanette Masenck was made Treasurer. The twenty-threes were very disappointed when they learned that they would have to wait until they were crowned Juniors before they would be permitted to hold two parties in a year.

Scene 2. TIME—Second semester, 1921

It was in their Sophomore year that many members of the class entered the various school activities. Besides those who participated in athletics the first year Matheney and Von Schrader went out for basketball and Grooms and Kiley took part in wrestling. In the swimming contests the class was represented by Irwin, Barton and Tyler. The end of another successful year was celebrated with a party at the K. of C. hall.

ACT III.

Scene 1. TIME—First semester, 1921

With the coming of September again the twenty-threes came back to school under the dignified name of Juniors. Frank Clark was once again chosen as President, "some people are natural born leaders." John Warren was proclaimed Vice-President and Francis Von Schrader was made Secretary of the class. The class being firm believers in woman suffrage elected Jeannette Maschke to the office of Treasurer and Ruth Taylor, Historian. Miss Harriet Gilling who had successfully served as class advisor for the first two years of the career of the class left O. H. S., so Miss Clara Enoch was elected to fill the position. Much praise is due Miss Enoch for her willing and patient guidance during the last two years of the career of the twenty-threes. The class selected a good, peppy class yell and chose blue and green as their colors. Since the twenty-threes were now Juniors they were permitted to have two parties a year, so the first one was held in January at the K. of C. hall.

Scene 2. TIME—Second semester, 1922.

The twenty-threes still continued to take leading parts in the many activities of the school. Prewitt won for himself an enviable reputation in football and basketball. Gordon Strong was the debater of the class and Mary Elizabeth Fernand won honors in declamatory work. The Juniors were always ready and willing to face up anything that was for the general welfare of the school. In June the Juniors royally entertained the Seniors at the customary Junior-Senior Reception which was held at the Hotel Ottumwa.

ACT IV.

Scene 1. TIME—First semester, 1922

With the coming of September again the twenty-threes launched on the last year of their long journey up the Mountain of Learning. The first thing to do was to select officers who would be capable of leading the class in the last eventful year of their high school life. Donovan Davidson was elected President and John Warren Vice-President. Paul Hasselquist was chosen for Secretary. Frank Clark was considered competent of handling the increased wealth of the class and Marion Rambo was declared Historian. The sun-burst rose was chosen for the class flower. The class party at the end of the first semester was held at the Hotel Ottumwa. Blue Melody Boys 'n everything!

Scene 2

The twenty-threes for four years had been hoping that they would be graduated from the new high school building. They kept up hopes to the last when they were told that the new building would not be completed. Here lies the tragedy of the whole play. But after this dreadful news did the twenty-threes "let down"? No! again they showed their superiority by going through their last semester with as much vim as ever. Early in June they were entertained at the Junior-Senior Reception. Then came that eventful day which shall be recorded in history—the day of graduation of the class of 1923.

1923 Class Will

We the class of 1923, being of sound and disposing mind, and about to depart this our abode for the last four years, do hereby bequeath and bestow all our valuable attributes and possessions in this our last will and testament; sincerely hoping our underclassmen will use them for the furtherance of true success.

To the '24s', our immediate successors, we bequeath our "peppy" democratic school spirit, our unassailable dignity and our ability "to rise to the occasion."

To the '25s' we leave our enviable athletic record.

Upon the '26s' we bestow our ability to entertain at class parties

All our personal virtues we bestow upon those who we think could best use them

Our class president Donovan Davidson bestows his popularity with the whole school upon Robert Kreiner. Frank Clark wills his loyalty to his class to Frank Pollard. Mary Lou Allen wills her pep and enthusiasm to Dorothy Lewis. Lloyd Peterson bequeaths his attractiveness to Edna McDowell. Edna Lauer leaves her aptness at Basketball to Virlie Aeringdale. Edwin Barton bequeaths his priceless razor to Jack Harris. Madge Bishop leaves her voice to Lucille Clair. Vera Bradford leaves her demureness to Florence Carlson. Marion Brown leaves her quick walk to Dorothy McElroy. Maxine Young leaves her cartooning ability to Janet Dowden. John Warren wills his popularity in holding down offices to Rayner Harper. Gwen Vinson leaves her pleasant smile and disposition to Louise Peppers. Ruth Williams wills her sense of humor to Dorothy Trotter. Arthur Tyler wills his soberness to Joe Ferguson. Mary Elizabeth Terhune wills her winsome smile to Frances Hardy. Ruth Taylor and Waldo Shoemaker will their inclinations toward music to future musicians of O. H. S. Gordon Strong wills his literary taste and appreciation to John Styre. Earl Stiles wills his infatuation for the fair sex to Robert Ferguson. Ilee Sowder wills her musical talent to Lillian Baker. Franny leaves his moustaches, his love affairs and his athletic abilities to Diz. Madelyn Burnett wills her fair locks to Betty Haw. Jean Chapman leaves her infatuation for a certain person to our office clerk. Ben Criley leaves his timidness at talking loud to Ellis Bernstein. Kyle Davis bequeaths his dancing ability to Emerson Brooks. Margaret Evans wills her popularity with the faculty to Corinne Bailey. Ruth Roth wills her timidness to Mary Lucille Emery. Walter Riley leaves his ability as a wrestler to Ralph Adamson. Glenn Reinier leaves his Chemistry grades to George Zika. Marion Rambo wills her poise and ability to command herself to Mary Keefe. "Pete" leaves his success in athletics to all members of next year's teams. Lillian Fern leaves her jewelry to Norma Blish. Paul Frazer leaves his stand-in with the faculty to Harry Parks. Cleo Funk leaves her "pangs of love" to anyone who has never experienced them. Clara Githen wills her good graces to Mary Louise Brown. Florence Goff leaves her smile to Betty Keyhoe. Lorenzo Grant wills his swift feet (for going home to lunch) to Ross Wiegand. Clair Grooms leaves his athletic abilities and frankness in recitations to Hubert Wilcox. Billy Harper leaves his never-ending chatter to Vera Roberts. Paul Hasselquist bestows his dignity upon John Webber. Helen Herrman and Bertha Landen leave their bold daring ways (?) to Ruth Baum and Theodora Stoessal. Elbert Hickman leaves his fine (?) recitation in Economics to anyone in serious need. Irene Pilmier leaves her position as accompanist to Ruth Castor. Cornelius Ostdiek bestows his complexion upon Clyde Elder. Martin O'Hara bestows his Irish looks and disposition upon Milford Brody. Maurice McVey gives all of his height he can spare to Eddie Kemp. Allen McCune wills his lung power "for his sax" to Charles Field for his horn. We hate to do it but we must let all of Helen Myers' attributes go right where they belong. The ability of Thelma Hildebrand to keep still (?) in class, we gladly give to Betty McGraw. Violet Hult's cosmetics go to Viola Carr. Paul Irwin wills his swimming ability to any competing for aquatic honors. Floyd Johnson wills his "take it easy" spirit to "Ducky" Taylor. Gwendolyn Johnson wills her quiet, pleasing manners to Dorothy Kling. Newman Johnson bequeaths his good luck horse to our class. When all the attributes of comrades of Hazel Jones and Elma Joseph, we give to each and every '24. Nellie Myers' studiousness we will to Calla Hand. We leave Ernest to the Cafeteria and its workers. Brancet Morrow leaves all of her many dates to Marthana Baker. George Keefe wills his record for getting through school to Harry Healy. Fern Kitterman leaves her many poses to Virginia Fullmer. Sara Helen Eaton wills her giggle to Dorothy Eigenmann. Evangeline Kratzer leaves her curls to Helen Heindal. Esther Larson leaves her loud (?) voice to Thelma Toms. Bonner Leonard leaves his laugh to Leroy Denefe. Creta Wheeler wills her powder puff to Bernadine Bowne. Genevieve Lewis bequeaths her babyish voice upon Madeline Lawrence. Mary Logan leaves her sweet disposition to Helen Dean Locke. Lucille Lyon wills her dramatic ability to Hazel Hervey. Benton Mahoney leaves his ability as stage hand to "Bob" Nelson. Marion Maschek her philanthropic nature to Rosamond Fiedler. Truman Mast leaves his very brilliant recitations to "Pinky" Winpigler. Jeannette Maschek leaves her lisps to Jeanne Doran. Paul Mirgon leaves his good behavior in class to Freddy Kidd. Thelma Morgan leaves her coquettish eyes to Vera Sterner. Otto Montague leaves all of his personal beauty secrets to Guy Graham. Virgil Meagher leaves his reputation as an entertainer in class to "Pat" Glynn. All N. T. graduates leave their ability as future teachers to all N. T. girls. In testament whereof, we the class of 1923, have set our hand and seal to this our last will and testament and have declared and published it at Ottumwa, Iowa, in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-three

Signed,

Class Prophecy for 1923

It was a bright, clear spring day in 1948—the end of a day that makes you want to see old friends and talk over old times. The office door opened and my stenographer informed me that two people were waiting to see me. They were Florence Goff and her millionaire hubby Dick Montague! They had a 1923 Argus with them and said they were looking up the class. Soon we were discussing our classmates of O. H. S.

"Yes, I know about several of them, since I became a traveling salesman, I have met many of them. Last week I was in Ottumwa, how it has grown! One woman I easily recognized at once—Mary Lou is head of the Milinery department at the Emporium—Berkent Morrow is at Bannister Beauty Parlors as a manicurist.

Thelma Albin teaches Latin in the Fremont High School and Hazel Baker lives with her and writes bedtime stories for the Courier," added Florence.

Eunice Barnes and Orin Minor have an enterprising guinea pig farm which is owned by the governor of Wisconsin and his wife Ella Lundborg."

Paul Mirgon and Johnnie Seaburg own one of the best race horses in the United States. Paul gets to yell 'hurrah for our side!' all he wants to," put in Dick.

"Lee Sowder's latest song hit is just out and I just bought a copy today," added Florence. Oh yes Dorothy Schorr and Lemont Eaton eloped last week. I also heard that Gene Marx works in the bakery where the Blue Bird used to be. It is owned by Waldo Snodgrass. Vernon Wallace is inventing Radio improvements and keeps as a helper, Theodore Giles. Dr. John Finnerty is making a huge success with his extensive practice in Chicago.

"Edwin Barton is a very noted instructor in the study of the eye, in Columbia University," said Dick. "Monk Mongoven is editor of the "Daily News" in Denver. Kenneth and Theresa have a greenhouse in Ottumwa.

"Ross Suit is an instructor at West Point. Glenn Reinier went west to seek his fortune and no one has heard from him since. Lorenzo Grant is a bachelor due to the fact that he was once engaged but forgot who it was and as a consequence was sued for breach of promise. Gwen Vinson after four hard years of study married a very influential politician and lives in Washington. Maxine Young is an illustrator for the books put out by the Wm. Harper Publishing Co.

Mary Bishop is chief surgical nurse in a Detroit Hospital and is desperately in love with the head doctor. Frank Clark is having a rest from his speech making because of his wife, Jeanette Maschek," laughed Florence. "Vera Bradford and Violet Hulst are models in the new women's shop in Ottumwa and Lillian Fern and Irene Palmer have started a school for aesthetic dancing. Mary Elizabeth Terhune, Maurice McVey, Ruth Taylor, Irene Prewitt and Lucille Haines formed a show troupe and are now making a tour of Egypt entertaining sphinxes and pyramids.

"Ben Criley was leading a revolution in Mexico the last I heard of him," I volunteered. "Ezer Edmund has a chicken farm and raises fine buff Wyandottes. Alan McCune has acquired fame through his book on Economics. Madelyn Burtnett is married to a banker in Cedar Rapids. Lucille Lyon attained her highest desire—she is a missionary in India."

"I see a divorce has been granted to Marion Maschek and Pete Prewitt," contributed Dick. "Karl Davis shines shoes and spins yarns in the cigar shop in Batavia. George Keefe is a surveyor in Alaska. I have heard that Helen likes the climate fine. Bonner Lemons' criticism of English literature has been published and is very widely used."

"Sara Helen Eaton is a very famed linguist, speaking seven languages," said Florence. "Lucille Gordon runs a shop for fixing airplanes in Farson. Dorothy Gallagher and Grace Sheehan are insurance agents. Helen Githens is happily married to a gob on board the U. S. S. Utah. Fern Kitterman and Margarite Hale married twin brothers and reside in New York City. Gordon Strong has taken the place of H. G. Wells. He writes chiefly in the field of satire and criticism"

Art Hickey and Martin O'Hara run a Hot Dog stand in Agency," said Dick. "Ruth Roth and Cleo Frink are the best photographers in Ottumwa. Virgil Meagher is chief dog-catcher of Dahlenega Township. Marion Brown decided they better keep her fate at home, so she gives music lessons and hates all kinds of men

"That Ku Klux affair is causing lots of excitement in Ottumwa. Elbert Hickman, Paul Irwin, Norman Johnson, and Corrie's school have been directed for organizing under false pretenses by Sheriff Mahoney."

"Edwin Pumroy has a shoe repair shop in Ottumwa. Walter Riley is street-car conductor in Los Angeles. Jean Chapman married Paul Hasselquist who is a newspaper reporter. Oswald Butler is a trapper in Canada and Margaret Evans is mayor of Iowa City. Leona Fuller and Edna Stocker preferred matrimony to the teaching profession and live in Ottumwa. Elma Joseph is an osteopath. Evangeline and Truman are living quietly in the suburbs of Ottumwa. Ruth Williams is a waitress at a tea room in De Moines where Clara Wheeler specializes in fancy cake baking. Floyd Johnson is a butcher and works in John Warren's meat market."

Ethel Stump is Don Davidson's private secretary who has become quite wealthy from investments in oil stocks. Charlie Myers is a messenger boy, Art Tyler is a plumber and Earl Stiles is a telegraph operator in Ottumwa. Mildred Simmons and Theresa Reese have Jones in a Turkish bath and in ancient city in Asia Minor. Walter Johnson tired of common life joined the Navy last year. Charlotte Horan teaches school in North Dakota," said Florence.

"Ileta Hunter is County Superintendant here. Ruth Wittenmyer is a clerk in Donclan's and Owen Lynn Johnson's once on the corners of Battine. Patterns Genevieve Lewis is a prim matron of a select school for girls in Ohio. Esther Larson married a minister and resides in Kansas City."

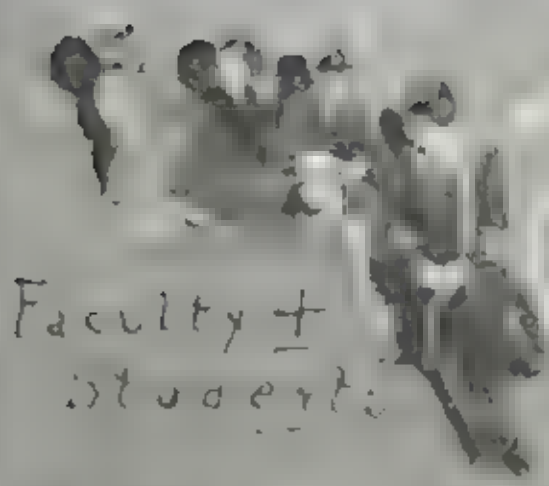

"Mary Logan has established a very successful matrimonial Bureau and has acquired a husband for herself."

"Frannie married an English Society dame and is quite popular in London. Marion Ramboach even made the success on the Chicago stage with the means of her dramatic ability."

"Nellie Myers drives a taxi in Ottumwa and Thelma Morgan owns a jewelry store," I said. "And oh, just today I received a letter from the Platts Mfg. Co. Rachel Pool is a county demonstrator." "Last night," said Dick, "we were listening to a Radio concert from P. I. K. Fairfield and heard the familiar voice of Clara Giltner. She is the announcer for the William Ware Confectionery Store."

"You know, I believe we have located nearly every member of the class," declared Florence. "Oh no, Dorothy Proud. She is a dressmaker in Ottumwa."

"Florence, do you realize what time it is?" asked Dick. "We must hurry for we are late now. "And so they left, leaving me to reflect upon the fates and fortunes of the Classmates of O. H. S

The Junior Class

MISS ANNA OWEN

Miss Owen, elected faculty advisor for the present Junior class, in January 1922, has been very successful in school affairs, and is anxious to help the class achieve its best in everything. The Juniors feel that they owe much to her good humor and willing spirit.

The Juniors are fortunate in having Miss Anna Owen for their class advisor this year. She was chosen to succeed Mr. Jones who left school soon after he was made the class sponsor. Mrs. Douma was the first advisor for the class.

The 24's are coming into their own as they near the upper class of the High School. Their three years of school life have been ones full of work and strife, but as other classes attain their goals even so do they.

The history of the class as a whole in their Freshman and Sophomore years, is marked only by their class parties. This year the class was fully organized and has made the important plan and program for the year out.

The Sophomore Class

MRS. CHARLOTTE FRANK

To Mrs. Frank, faculty advisor, the Sophomores owe much. It is to a certain extent through her interest and energy that the class has acquired its reputation for loyalty and pep. Mrs. Frank's cheerful disposition and kindly spirit coupled with her competent supervision has won for her a place in the heart of every Sophomore and the respect of every member of O. H. S.

The class of 1925 has earned an enviable reputation for pep and high school spirit. They have proven themselves to be boosters and loyal supporters of all high school activities. The class not only gives its support to all functions but is represented in almost every phase of school life. Ross Wiegand and Edward Bonnifield are on the Debating team; Edith Wilson is on the Girls Basketball team and many others are faithful workers on the scrub athletic teams.

Alice Trenneman, Ruth Lowe and Samuel Bookin creditably represent the class on the Student Council.

The Sophomores have two years in which to demonstrate their ability. They have responded splendidly to all the calls of O. H. S. and will achieve much honor and glory for her before they leave.

Argus Annual

Although it would be impossible to publish a year book without the hearty support of every student in O. H. S. the greatest amount of individual credit and praise belongs to the staff of capable workers and to Mr. Brenneman, Miss Enoch and Miss Huston for their advice and correction.

The staff offers no apology for this book, we only desire that it will accomplish its purpose; to accurately represent the students as they are and that it will bring pleasant memories of the class of '23.

Argus News

Miss Enoch Faculty Advisor proved to be a beacon light indeed, steering the good ship "Argus News" away from the stern rocks of financial disaster. Miss Enoch's business ability coupled with her pleasing personality has made her an advisor valuable to the "Argus" and the Student Body in general.

Miss Huston Faculty Critic, needs no introduction or index to testify to her merit and worth as a literary critic. Serving in that capacity for both the News and Annual Miss Huston has been faithful and patient almost to a fault in her efforts to help both publications along the path that leads to Success.

The Argus News, a bi-weekly paper, was published under a new plan this year. Two staffs under the supervision of one Editor-in-chief and Business Manager prepared alternate issues.

The aim of the Argus was to print as accurately as possible all Athletic reports, general news of the school, class notes, criticisms from Exchanges and anything in the way of feature stories. Due to the fact that no journalism training was offered in the high school curriculum and no credit system devised our staffs operated under a great handicap.

The Press Convention at Grinnell last fall was attended by nine members of the staff. The Argus tied for first place in the editorial contest and received honorable mention for front page make-up.

We were also represented by two delegates at the Convention of the Central Interscholastic Press Association held at Madison, Wisconsin. Although the Argus received no prizes here, we feel that our paper ranks with the best.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council

MISS MILLER

Other schools have acknowledged the need and achievement of a student council in the handling of school affairs. The O. H. S. ranking with other schools has also acknowledged the importance of an organized council as a unit in the government of school life.

Hence the student council was organized last year. Although not so much materially was achieved the first year, it was important because it laid the foundations of success for the past year and perhaps years to come. The plan for the past year was to have five seniors, five juniors, three sophomores and one freshman in the council thus giving a representation of each class according to rank.

The achievement of the council during the past year has been worthy of commendation. They have taken over projects which the faculty had heretofore worked out. One important project that the council has taken over is the keeping of order in the cafeteria.

Had it not been for the backing of the faculty and the student body in general the council never would have been a success. If the Student Body will continue to get back of the council as it has done in the past, the council can not help but be a success.

The success of the Student Council is due greatly to the skilful, unerring guidance of Miss Miller, the faculty advisor. Miss Miller willingly gives her time and energy in order that the Student Council may be a success. She is always ready to assist the council in any way possible.

HI-Y CLUB

Hi-Y Club

MR. J. B. HARNED

Less than five short years ago the Ottumwa Hi-Y club held its first meeting. For some time thereafter it was almost unknown to the student body; but in recent years that little club has sprung to a place of prominence and importance seldom enjoyed by a High School organization.

In its brief period of existence the Hi-Y club has become the most powerful and influential group in the student body. It has taken a place of unquestioned leadership among the students. From its ranks have come almost all those men entrusted by the student body with positions of responsibility or honor! But underlying all this is the powerful, driving force of the spiritual leadership which the very purpose and ideal of such an organization must of necessity bring about; the influence which works through the great annual conferences, the summer training camps and the regular bi-weekly Bible Study. It is this influence which is the underlying principle of the whole organization, the massive base to which all the rest, however great, is but ornaments. Mr. Harned is Senior Hi-Y Advisor and Mr. Evans, Junior.

That the club has well deserved the place of respect which it holds is evidenced by its earnest support of the school authorities, both student and faculty. That its place of leadership has been used to advance the interests of O. H. S. is shown by the active assistance of its members in the early development and organization of such beneficial bodies as the Student Council and the Pep Club, and by the careful planning and work of its members upon the Student's Hand Book.

And last but far from least the self-sacrificing endeavors for O. H. S. on gridiron, floor, mat, and cinder track give ample proof that the club richly merits its enviable place! In regards to this, it must be said that most of the members have won their "O's", that the club claims as its own one-half the letter men, that the captains of the Football, Basketball, Track and Swimming team, and that the holders of the state high-jump record, a hurdles record, the state wrestling title in the 145 lb. class and the winner of the state cross country run are all Hi-Y men!

Finally during 1922-23, and in fact during its whole existence the Ottumwa Hi-Y club has tried, by untiring labors to be a pillar of strength for O. H. S.

MR. J. G. EVANS

JUNIOR HI-Y CLUB

HI-IRI CLUB

Hi-Tri Club

MISS CLARA HOLMAN

The Hi-Tri organization is carried on through the Y. W. C. A. and corresponds to the Hi-Y Club for boys. Miss Holman, the girl's faculty advisor, and Miss Arganbright, the girls' secretary at the Y. W. C. A. are the supervisors of this organization and by their splendid advice and suggestions, the girls have made wonderful progress.

The Hi-Tri Club is composed of ninety-seven Sophomore and Junior and Senior girls, whose object is to live as a Christian of her age should and to aid her to put into practice in the community, standards of Christian living. The activities of the club are four-fold—recreational, work, fellowship and religion.

The regular meetings of the Club are held every second and fourth Friday of the month; cabinet meetings, the first Friday; committee meetings the third Friday.

During this year several clever parties and initiations have been held. A kid party was held at the first meeting of the year for any girl who wished to come. A pleasant and novel evening was enjoyed by all. The Hi-Tri Club was one of the organizations to put on an effective "pep chapel" for the football games; and at the close of the football season the girls gave a banquet for the letter men.

At Christmas a party was given for sixty-five poor children and a Christmas tea was also given to raise money for World Fellowship.

Other unique parties were a Grandmother party, a St. Patrick's party and a play "Who Is My Neighbor."

A High School Girls' Conference for North Central Field, is held each year at Lake Okoboji.

NORMAL TRAINING CLUB

Normal Training Club

MISS LOUISA A. VANDYKE

The Normal Training Club has been very active this past school year due to the splendid work of the officers, their supervisor, Miss Van Dyke and the co-operation of all members. The club was organized four years ago when the Normal Training Department was given to Miss Van Dyke who has succeeded in making a State reputation for it. She is also one of the Extension Workers, Cedar Falls.

The aim of the club is to instruct the members socially and educationally for leadership in the community where they teach. At present there are between sixty and seventy members none of whom can have an average below C.

The initiation for new members is held twice a year, in October and February at the Y. W. C. A. The beautiful ritual, written by our principal Mr. Brenneman, an excellent program and delightful formal dinner given, serve to make these occasions red letter events for the N. T. C.

This year the club has been favored by having at professional programs, Misses Bell, Harlan, Pearson and Downs. Other events were a unique Halloween party; a very successful backwards dinner given for seven January seniors, at Christmas; the giving of baskets to needy families; an effective stunt for athletic chapel; a May Day Party and a dinner for the June Seniors.

PHILO LITERARY SOCIETY

Philo Literary Society

MISS ESTELLE JEFFREY

The Junior and Senior girls of the Philo Literary Society have well achieved the purpose this year for cultivating an appreciation of art, promoting general education and providing wholesome entertainment for the members

The first meeting of this year was held for the election of officers. Miss Jeffrey was unanimously re-chosen as the sponsor. Due to the splendid program committee assisted by her suggestions and advice, the programs and work have been of unusual interest.

The membership of the Society is now fifty. The work of the year began with the usual initiation of new members followed by the annual spread in the cafeteria, with the new Philos and Faculty members as guests.

The Philos were one of the organizations to put on a "pep chapel" for the football games. The nature of it was a very clever mock wedding with Victory and O. H. S. as bride and groom.

The programs this year have been of a little different type than formerly. An effort has been made to fit the programs to the needs and interest of Junior and Senior High School girls.

Among some of the most interesting meetings were two held in October when the subjects considered were

"Manners for the High School Girl" and "Suitable Dress for the High School girl."

At the November meetings, "Modern Reading Matter for Girls" was the subject for discussion, one meeting being given to "Modern Books" and one to "Modern Literature".

Other programs of special merit were the two April programs, one given to the study of the Drama the chief feature of which was a brief sketch written and produced by a Philo cast, the other was a general discussion of the best schools and colleges for girls and of what work girls can take up when they have finished school.

Two fun-making programs, first A kid program with a heated debate on the subject "Resolved that I would rather be a boy than a girl." A St. Patrick's party with original Limericks.

MR. CLARENCE ALTON

Mr. Alton deserves a great deal of credit for the progress made by the radio club this year. The meetings are made intensely interesting by his presentation of theory and practical demonstrations

His efforts have been greatly appreciated by the school in general as well as just the members of the club

This, the third year for the radio club, has been one of the most successful. At present they are using both a receiving and transmitting apparatus. The station is operated under the call Q A. S. C. The Club has the distinction of having six licensed operators.

The present transmitting set is hoped, in the near future to be replaced by a C. W. transmitting set with a range of from one thousand to fifteen hundred miles.

The meetings are held each Tuesday evening and a regular program is followed. They have code practice and the theory of the radio is presented by Mr. Alton and discussed by the Club.

LIBRARIANS

O. H. S. Library

The librarians were organized this year by Dorothy McElroy, who was Head Librarian. The books were properly indexed at the beginning of each semester and the work in keeping the books in their proper places, keeping order in the library was exceptionally good.

The library is used extensively by the student body for reference work. There are approximately a thousand volumes in the library consisting of supplementary reference books, three sets of Encyclopedias and dictionaries of English, Spanish, French and Latin. Besides these volumes the library subscribes for several magazines as "The Outlook," "National Geographic," "Country Gentleman," and "Popular Science."

The rules for the use of the library by the student body permit only three to enter at one time, and no whispering or loitering is allowed. No article may be taken out before the period begins and all books must be returned the same period that they are taken out.

The first and second semester the library was open for the students nine periods. The librarians were a great help to the students and were always willing to be of their service.

There has been put in the library this year, eight 1923 Argus Annuals from noted colleges in Iowa and one or two states.

MISS JANET KIMPSTON

The French Club is under the able supervision of Miss Kimpston this year. The purpose of this club is to encourage the speaking of the French language and to have a social time at the regular meetings. All 9 B pupils who have a grade of A and all others who have taken or are taking French, are eligible for membership. "Par accord" these meetings are held every two weeks. The first "soiree" of the year was held at the home of Dorothy McElroy. Interesting as well as educational programs are given. French games are played and stories from modern French authors are read. Spanish Club

"Dios me libre de hombre de un libro."

The Spanish Club of our High School was organized again this year under the guidance of Miss Berta McMurray, the faculty advisor. The meetings of the Club are held every two weeks, but due to the Dramatic Club Play, which took many of the members, the meetings were suspended for a time during the winter. All pupils who have had one year or more of the Spanish language may become members of the club.

The meetings are profitable, in promoting the speaking of the language and for a study of Spanish customs and literature, "Quien sabe," but that this year may prove the most successful year for the Spanish Club, in the history of Ottumwa High.

Pep Club

MR. FRANK DOUMA

Mr. Douma was the faculty member of the Pep Club this year. In view of the fact that he was athletic manager, a more excellent advisor could not have been found. His zeal for athletics, spurred on the work of the Pep Club and helped to make this organization a huge success.

The "Pep Club" is a new organization in O. H. S. There has been in former years, a Pep Club Executive committee which helped to organize the student body and to back school activities. This year the idea of a smaller club originated with the Student body and the members were chosen by a committee of students.

The mission of the club was to help foster the spirit of pep in the school and to help the school body to do. Some of the first undertakings were the parades, which helped to show the people of Ottumwa just where O. H. S. stood, and the successful reception which was put on by the Pep Club after the Armistice Day game.

All things have been loyally supported by the Pep Club and it has truly been a body of great promotive powers in O. H. S. Much greater success is anticipated by the club next year.

MUSIC

Music in O. H. S.

Miss CLEVA J. CARSON

Miss Cleva J. Carson does not need an introduction to the students of O. H. S. For three years, she has been the successful director of the glee club activities of this high school. Not only has Miss Carson won distinction by her direction of the opera "The Chimes of Normandy" by Planquette but she is also the director of the Ottumwa Oratorio Society. At Christmas this society, under the supervision of Miss Carson, gave Handels' "Messiah" and at Easter time they gave Mendellsohn's "Elijah." She has also trained eleven hundred children of the fifth and sixth grade, for a Christmas Carol service.

O. H. S. is indeed proud of Miss Carson and hopes to keep her for many years.

GLEE CLUBS

The First Girls and Boys are the most active of these organizations. Every one has had the privilege of hearing these two clubs several times this year. They made their first appearance at the Christian Chapel and were very well received. Their part in the community Christmas service received much commendation. On April 18th these two clubs gave the annual Easter Cantata at the First Methodist Church. Bartlett's "From Life to Death" was given this year.

The Mixed Chorus, organized last fall, as a new venture for O. H. S. has also made an enviable record for itself in the annals of the high school. This club is composed of almost a hundred boys and girls all interested in music and faithful in practice.

The ability of this chorus was demonstrated by their part in the opera by Planquette "The Chimes of Normandy."

The second and third girls have after another successful year made a place for themselves in O. H. S. Although they have not had many opportunities to appear in public, they were very well received at the annual musical on January 12th and deserve a great deal of credit for their work. Many of the members from these clubs were in the mixed chorus and took part in the opera.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, after another successful year, has won a place for itself in the annals of O. H. S. Under the careful supervision of Mr. Linder, they have made themselves a valuable asset to O. H. S. There are at present thirty-three pieces.

The orchestra plays for the noon Mass every morning and is always well received. It also plays for the Big Nine Declamatory Contest and for the Christmas program.

The Band was reorganized at the beginning of the school year. The Board of Education purchased instruments for the use of the band members who do not own their own.

It has appeared for several chapels and has furnished a great deal of pep for the school parades and football games.

It is the aim and purpose of this organization to acquaint the members with the best type of music to cultivate an interest in it, and an appreciation for it.

MINERAL CHARTS

DRAMATICS.

Dramatics

MISS ANNA LAURA CLARK

Under Miss Clark's advisorship the Dramatic Club has achieved many notable things. The standard has been raised largely through the charming personality and untiring efforts of the advisor coupled with her splendid training and dramatic ability.

Miss Clark also took charge of the girl's declamatory work and made it an activity very worth while. She deserves much praise and commendation from the entire student body of O. H. S.

With a membership of thirty-five, a crew of competent officers, and meeting twice each month the club was destined to grow and thrive.

Miss Clark gave many interesting talks accompanied by demonstrations on "The Art of Make Up" and "Stage Directions." A series of short one act plays presented and coached by the members proved to be of great benefit to all. An evidence of the striking success of the club was the play "The Charm School" presented at the Opera House on February 2nd. The play was a huge success.

Mr. Adolph Johnson served as Coach for both debating and boys' declamatory. His own ability and his faith in the boys acted as a stimulus to a greater effort. O. H. S. hopes to keep Mr. Johnson next year. Debating did not prove to be a paramount activity this year. Only three men with any experience what-so-ever were left for this year's team. The "Big Nine" was the only contest entered. The question for debate was "Resolved that the Coal Mines of the United States should be placed under Federal Control." The first dual debate was held on February 1st with Washington. Ottumwa won 2-1 on both sides which evens up last year's defeat by Washington. On March 9, occurred the first triangle of the "Big Nine" between Burlington, Fairfield and Ottumwa. Our Affirmative Team went to Fairfield and the Negative met Burlington here. They won a 2-1 vote; the former lost 2-1. Fairfield won this triangle of the state.

DEBATERS

Jack Harris although a new debater this year showed up well, always presenting a clear and concise argument. Robert Kriener ably filled the position of third speaker and added more laurels to his fame as an orator. Bernard Henson closed his second year of debate with hard work and careful preparation. Harry Parks completed his second year of debate for O. H. S. Parks has developed a distinctive method of presenting convincing arguments and we expect great things of him next year. Le Roy Dence in his first year of debate proved to be a careful reader and a forceful speaker. Dwight Bannister as first alternate was always ready with a powerful speech. The other two debaters, John Webber and Edward Bonfield, also deserve credit and will be left for next year's team.

DECLAMATORY

Friday, December 8th, the Annual Big Nine Boys Declamatory Contest was held in O. H. S. Robert Kreiner represented O. H. S. with the selection, "The Turk Must Go." He placed third the first time that Ottumwa has placed in Boys' Declam Contest since the Big Nine League was organized.

In the Big Nine Contest for girls held at Burlington Hazel Hervey represented Ottumwa with the selection "No. 6."

Hazel and Mary E. Terhune were in the sub-district contest at Hedrick, March 2nd. Mary Elizabeth placed third in the humorous section and Hazel also placed third in the dramatic section.

MR. YOUNT

O. H. S. is indeed fortunate in having for their coach one of so high a calibre as coach Yount. During his stay here he has built up a great team in football basketball and track out of raw material. He takes interest in everyone of the players and gives everyone a fair chance. He is also a man who believes in a fair and square deal all around. Yount is of the type that can get the best out of the players and is a fighter to the last ditch.

O. H. S. closed a successful football season with an unfortunate defeat by our old rivals—Oskaloosa. However, our record is not to be ashamed of, 6 victories—3 defeats—1 tie game. It is a percentage of about 666. This year's team was the best in years and was a fine school of experience for next year's team.

The coach will undoubtedly have a fine record of victories next year. Washington's defeat is the best of the season so far. We did not hit our stride. Albia tied us when the game seemed on ice and then Davenport after being trounced on during the first few minutes of play, got lucky with their forward passes. What a record on points getting was seen by everyone in the school. For the first time in the 1922 football season was the most successful O. H. S. has seen in years.

Captain "Skinny" GROOMS

"Skinny" rounded out his fourth and last year on the gridiron for O. H. S. He is one of the best full-backs in the state and a wonderful performer. It is unlikely that O. H. S. will ever find as stellar a performer again in her ranks as he was.

Not only did he break into all the games but he turned out to every practice and set a fine example for all the team.

"Pete" PREWITT—End

In the person of Pete, O. H. S. found an end that was mighty hard to beat. He was in every play—tackling, smashing, passing, punting. Next year's team will have a hard vacancy to fill when it comes to replacing Pete, who graduates this year.

"Franny" VON SCHRADER—End

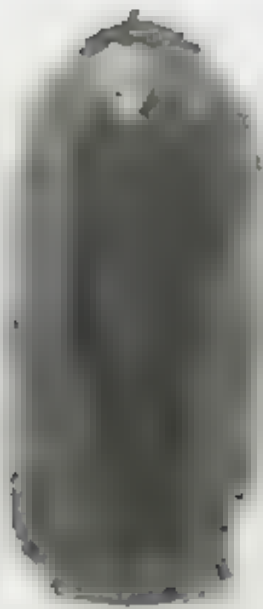

Our right end was one of those talented individuals who can play most anything they take a notion to. He could play football like a demon and was right there when it came to receiving passes and also to intercepting them. Next year's team will be at a loss to fill his position.

CORNELIUS RATER—Tackle

Ottumwa has reason to be proud of her tackle this year, he was in a great measure responsible for our strength both on the offense and defense. He will be eligible for next year's team and should prove to be one of the best men in the state.

PAUL SOLOMON—Quarterback

"Sox" was a wonder on those shifty end runs and could also squirm thru the line like an eel. In addition to this ability, "Sox" was a man to be feared as a tackler. He will be left for next year's championship team.

MR. YOUNT

MARVIN GOOKIN—Guard

Gookin was transferred from the backfield to the line early in the season and although a little light for the position, he filled it exceedingly well. He was a fighter to the finish. He will be left for next year's team.

CLARENCE MATHENEY—Half-back

As this was Matheney's first year as a football player he could not be expected to become a star. However, he sure developed fast and should be a mainstay of next year's team.

DON DAVIDSON—Center

"Donny" was another one of the new men this year and although he had his heart set on a backfield position he willingly tried out for a line position and got it. This is his last year.

PAUL IRWIN—Guard

Paul had hard luck last year in the way of a broken collar bone but this year he broke the jinx and landed a berth on the team. He graduates this year and will be sorely missed.

HARLAN PARKS—Half and Quarter

Harlan has served faithfully on the team from his freshman year on and has with him proved a valuable member of the machine. He will be left for next year.

NOLAN PIERCE—Half-back

Nolan was kept out of the fray the last half of the season by an automobile accident. He is left for next year and will prove a very valuable man.

RALPH SWEENEY—Quarterback

Sweeney was a hard fighting backfield man and is an asset to our team and should be more so to next year's wonder team.

"Chuck" ADAMSON—Guard

"Chuck" was right there when it came to tearing into plays; smashing thru the line and making things go wrong for the enemy in spite of a jinx that followed him all season. He is left for next year.

EDWIN PUMROY—Tackle

"Red" came out every night to be thrown around with slight chance of making the team. He was as regular as the clock and was respected by everyone for his determination and spirit.

VERNELL TOEMMIS—Tackle

"Touch" was a fighter and also had the strength of an ox. Nothing could stop him or get past him. Next year will find him an unbeatable line man and will value him very greatly.

DWIGHT BANNISTER—Guard

Dwight was a plugger, too light for the line and too slow for the backfield but by dint of hard work, regular practice and training earned recognition in the way of a letter.

JOHN SEABURG—Guard

John clawed and fought like a tiger and created a rumpus in general. The only trouble was that he was light for the position that he was slated to play.

JOE FERGUSON—End

Joe was another one of our ends who showed up well in a gallery of stars. He was always in the midst of the fray and fought until the whistle blew. He will probably fill one of next season's regular berths.

1923 BASKETBALL TEAM

Basketball

"FRANNY"

A fighting coach! a fighting team! and—a championship! Such is the most adequate description possible of that aggregation of six-octers which swept its little six rivals before it like straw in a cyclone.

Certainly, with such a record the season of 1922-23 cannot be neglected in any history of Ottumwa's brilliant career on the "gym" floor! Surely the team which, in the greatest basketball season in years wrested a championship from the strongest teams in southern Iowa must be set alongside those whirlwinds of olden times which crashed through opposition and whisked cup after cup from gaping adversaries.

But such mighty accomplishments are not brought about in moments, in hours or in months. That team which worked with such machine-like precision, bewildered opposition and tore through rivals by indomitable fight, had struggled through long years of preparation of defeat and discouragement; it had come back after failures with new determination and had followed patiently the precepts of its coach

So much for the spirit that won!

Behind that fight, behind that determination and labor, behind the whole spirit of our team was a master! Leading, driving, inspiring there was always that dynamo of fight and school spirit!

That fight and that spirit were contagious they charged the very air, they have at times turned the tide from defeat to victory. And it is unquestioned that there could have been no championship, that the marvelous abilities of our men working on a level with the best of them, that master Coach George Yount! Yount, a fighter to the last ditch, a man of driving personality and sterling character, a man whose very example demands conscientious labor, undying fight and a clean life in his boys!

Now, as a result of the efforts of this clean, fighting, coach; as a result of the endless, grueling, conscientious endeavors of the wonder-team which was glad to give its last ounce of strength in the fight for O. H. S., we look back on a season filled with victory (for we are Champions of the Little Six, Subdistrict Champions, Victors over the Southeastern Iowa Title Holders and Winners of 3rd place in the Missouri Valley Tournament, a season which points the return of O. H. S. to her former glory and a season which needs no explanation or apology.

1922-23 was a success, an unqualified success

Captain "FRANNY" VON SCHRADER—Forward

Ottumwa has had basketball captains for almost a quarter of a century. Probably in every case these men were brilliant and sometimes spectacular players but it is unlikely that she has ever had a captain who set a finer example to his team mates of conscientious and even self-sacrificing endeavor than did "Franny" von Schrader. For behind that cool, steady, consistent playing without the smallest show of the spectacular was an equally consistent adherence to training rules and an equally steady daily practice; not from fear of his coach, not to hold his place but that he might give his best for O. H. S. and his all for his team!

With such spirit defeat was impossible, but when coupled with such speed, accuracy, calmness and native ability as is Franny's possession, why then overwhelming victory was certain.

"PETE" PREWITT—Guard

When one is able to "carry" successfully six class room studies he is hardly expected to be a basketball star. However, it is very probable that something over a dozen southern Iowa high schools have found to their deep regret that such a thing is possible; for no team could watch its highest passes and most careful shots raked down in midflight at every attempt and long deny that a man of more than ordinary ability played Ottumwa's guard'

And when that same man calmly tossed that same ball to the very center of his opponents' basket there can be no question that there was at least 'surprise in the camp of the enemy'

Pete was our free-throw artist. Artist is correct—for in a single game he has come to the verge of 100 per cent and his record for the entire season must stand above 500.

It is needless, in view of these facts, to say that "Pete" was a mainstay of our team, for a man who can shoot with such accuracy and cover half the floor with almost comical ease stands out as a star on the average team'

"Diz" VINCENT Forward

To be able to stand on tiptoe and almost drop the ball through the basket rather than use the usual method of tossing is an advantage not to be overlooked in basketball

When we couple with this unusual height an uncanny eye for the basket we have an offensive unit much to be feared, but when we add to this a remarkable speed and agility in floor work we have a player par excellence. That was "Diz" and he added and built on his startling ability by that same conscientious labor and training which characterized our whole team. We look for some all state playing from you next year, "Diz."

MARVIN GOOKIN Forward

Each year someone, it seems, on each of Ottumwa's teams must be visited by misfortune. In the case of the basketball team fortune chose Gookin as the object of her ire

"Gook" was well started on a course of stellar playing with the opportunity of being a member of a championship team. Very early, however, a tussle resulted in partial paralysis of his arm. Though such an injury is merely one of the "fortunes of war," O. H. S. cannot but lament being deprived of such a player as Marvin, fast as greased lightning, every inch a fighter and an accurate shot

But the story is not all regret. 1924 will see Gookin back on the job, showing the same whirlwind game, again fighting for every point and steadily plugging in baskets

CLARENCE MATHENEY Guard

ball spinning through the hoop from beyond the center of the floor. He has served his school well from the foul line (he averages about .500), and he has conscientiously trained and worked that he might do not only enough but all he was capable of doing

This is Matheney's third year and none can say truthfully that those three years did not give him ability seldom found in High School players

"Classy" has another year and we expect him to show some whirlwind playing in 1924

JOE FERGUSON Forward

That size is not the only consideration in the game of basketball has been proven by our little fighting forward. Maybe we should not say little, but we speak now in comparisons

We don't know how it happened and we're not a bit superstitious but we have noticed that some games began to speed up and the score began to climb when Ferguson got in. From this we conclude that Joe and his fighting spirit were as valuable to our team as the left hind foot of a graveyard rabbit to an Afro-American Cullud Ge'm'mun

But laying all joking aside we did have a fast, hard player and a good shot in Joe Ferguson!

PAUL ("Sox") SOLOMON—Forward

When a man five feet tall can outjump a six-foot gym floor veteran; when he makes up twelve inches of height and forty pounds of weight by speed and determination the world sits up and takes notice in a very visible and audible way.

The audiences at basketball games this year have conclusively proved this fact and no one will doubt that "Sox" deserved whatever acclamation he received.

Now although "Soly" deserves more space by reason of his achievement, we've neglected it that's necessary and we only wish that many times again he'll hear that, "What's the matter with Sox!"

JOHN NIMAN—Center

This John "Nimo" boy passes up the two yard mark, yea verily, for has he not out jumped the very best of all the jumpers in the league? Has he not put to shame the longest legged rabbits in the township? Even so!

He has done more than this! He carries a wallop in his paw that would quake around a Dempsey. Not insinuating that he uses it like a Dempsey.

That wallop knocks the ball from midfloor to the basket, driving it right from the tossup toward the hoops with surprising accuracy.

Good shot! Well, I guess! We specialize in long range business.

Besides John's offensive power it need only be said, that ten odd feet of scrap-ported oak can in so many nights block a passer's shot and so we say in finishing that he was an all around player!

"DONY" DAVIDSON—Guard

Talk about fight! Did you see Don smash that Osky offense?

Since we have dreamed of what some others of our fallen assistants must have thought when they fell, we may well dream on "What did Osky think?" New man in, the last year's regular score-aver's experience besides this he must step into the shoes of a star player. Conclusion—We ought to have an easier job.

However, they found rather than an inexperienced man at guard, just about one hundred fifty pounds of strength and "quality." They found rather than a man of ordinary ability a player who by care to attend to training rules, hard work and determination had developed into probable fame.

Track Prospects

The track prospects for this year are not overly bright. However, two stars are in school and should be record breakers in their respective lines. Von Seim, already holds the State High School record in the high jump and should prove capable of clearing the bar at an even greater height. Added to this he is a hurdle man of no mean ability. Vincent, the long distance man who placed first in the state Cross Country Run should break the tape first in either the mile or half mile if not in both. He is a runner of great ability and we expect much of him this year.

Among the lesser stars is Suit the 440 yd. dash man. Last year Suits showed up good in all the meets he entered. And in this, his second year on the cinder path, he should develop into a fast dash man. Toemmes should be in condition—from his football and wrestling work—to throw the hammer and shot to good advantage for O.H.S. Among the following list of fellows may be noticed some ability that Coach Yount can bring to the front: Harris, Spiker, Davidson, Perdew, Pruitt and Seaburg. At least they will probably be out on the track doing their best and should be given the credit for it.

023 WRESTLING TEAM

The Mat Season

The wrestling season for O. H. S. opened with a dual meet with Knoxville, January 10th. There were seven matches in all instead of the customary eight as Knoxville's 95 pounder was ineligible. Through the request of Knoxville's coach a new system of point scoring was used. A decision counted 6 points and a fall 8 points.

Ottumwa won every match in this system of scoring, so increased the final tally that it gave O. H. S. the big end of a 50-0 score.

On January 23rd the mat team met the strong Oskaloosa team. Ottumwa had been beaten by Oskaloosa in almost every branch of sport in the past two years and it remained to the mat team to break the "jinx." The regular state regulated rules were used in the matches, 5 points being counted for a fall and 3 points for a decision. The last match finally gave O. H. S. a total of 27 to Oskaloosa's 5.

On the 3rd of February the mat team journeyed to Oskaloosa for a return match. The team, although they had won the previous match was a little nervous as to the outcome of the next. Osky had been working hard and did not intend to lose to O. H. S. again. The team was crippled by sickness so Captain Riley and our star 95 pounder Booth had to be left at home. Alderdice, a new man went to Osky to defend O. H. S. in the 105 pound class. Ben Criley took Riley's place and Clarence Peck went to Osky as the O. H. S. 95 pound man. Little need be said of the match as it was a repetition of the others with O. H. S. coming out with the long end of a 31-5 score.

Then came the great events! The team went to the state tournament at Ames, February 9-10. The team was composed of Booth, Alderdice, Franklin Grooms, Adamson and Toemmes. There were 31 schools entered in this meet and O. H. S. came out sixth; Grooms and Adamson gaining the points that placed O. H. S. among the winners.

Then on March 23, 24 at Iowa City our fighting wrestlers earned a State Championship in such fashion as has never been known or recorded. The team, this time, was composed of Booth, Wilcox, Franklin, Adamson and Toemmes. Grooms was out of school by graduation. These five men captured a STATE CHAMPIONSHIP A PIECE! Of course, they incidentally brought O. H. S. a huge silver championship plaque.

Six State Champions! Was the season of 1923 a failure?

Captain RILEY

In the Knoxville match "Walt" gained a decision with a time advantage of 3:48. From Oskaloosa he gained a decision over Captain Thomas with an advantage of 4 minutes. This credits Riley with giving Ottumwa 9 points both gained by an enormous advantage and we might have had a state champion in Riley had his health permitted it.

"Skinny" GROOMS - 154 Pounds

To be, in a large measure, at least more than any other student, responsible for the introduction of wrestling at O. H. S., to be for two successive years captain of wrestling, in those two years to have taken almost entire charge of the organization and training of the teams, turning out successful aggregations in both cases, never to have betrayed his team by breach of training rules, and in his third and last year to capture six state championships and a state silver championship, a record which has been made by no student of O. H. S. in the memory of the present student body, a record which is unlikely to be equaled for many years to come.

HUBERT "Skeet" WILCOX—125 and 115 Pounds

"Skeet" is another who would have placed in the Ames meet had he been able to compete as we may see from his victories in other matches. When in a bout that was very fast and full of action, he gained a fall from Knoxville in 5:30 and the decision which gave us 3 points in the Osky meet. At Iowa City he fought through the most difficult matches of any member of the team.

VERNELL TOEMMES—Heavyweight

The match between Vernell Toemmes and Currier of Knoxville lasted about 30 seconds. "Big Bill" tore after his man in his true gridiron fashion and with a regular football tackle brought things to a quick finish. Against Oskaloosa outweighed ten pounds he gained a decision with a time advantage of 2:15 minutes.

In the Ames meet "Tough" Toemmes lost his first match but not until he had put up a hard fight and lost only by a few seconds, and at Iowa—we all know the story of that hard won Championship!

RALPH "Chuck" ADAMSON—158 Pounds

When a man persists in bringing home the bacon from a state meet for two consecutive years and in addition to this wins a state championship against almost terrible competition there is no necessity to speak for him—his actions speak louder than words. We need only remember that he won by falls except in one instance. At Ames where the time advantage was 6 minutes.

LEE FRANKLIN—135 Pounds

Lee threw his opponent from Knoxville in 4 minutes, his Osky adversary in 6 minutes and at Ames lost to Mae who had the time advantage of 8 seconds and at Iowa won the state championship. When we remember that Franklin is just starting in mat work the horizon looks bright.

BERNARD BOOTH—95 Pounds

In his first match Booth surprised Osky very decidedly as they had an experienced man in his class. Goodwin, the Osky star put up a losing battle and Booth won with a time advantage of 3:45. At the Ames meet our lightweight lost to Wilson of Boone who won the state championship in his class. At Iowa he won by time advantages of 5:1 and 3:55 respectively.

CHARLES MYERS—105 Pounds

Charley came out for his first time this year and landed a berth on a mighty expert Graham a week later. However, a record of 50% victory is nothing to hang one's head at and Charley can consider that a mighty fine record.

BEN CRILEY—115 Pounds

Ben got into only one match but the report on his scrap in that match runs thus. After the hardest fought and best generated match of the season, he gained a decision over the Osky captain Thomas. Criley was outweighed 6 pounds and was fighting against an experienced man. Ben showed the true fighting spirit.

STRODE ALDERDICE—105 Pounds

Strode was one of the men whom the Ottumwa fans had no opportunity to see in action but we believe his work away from home testifies strongly to his ability. He surprised Osky to the back of their necks when he threw their 105 pounder in the fast time of 2:45. In the State meet he started with vim but in his second match lost to Shertz of Iowa Falls.

CLARENCE PECK—95 Pounds

Because a man loses the only match in which he is privileged to represent his school is no reason to draw slighting conclusions as to his ability. We must remember that Peck lost to Goodwin, an experienced wrestler and that even in defeat he was fighting hard for O. H. S.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Girls' Basketball

28

Miss Lois M. King

The basketball girls of O. H. S. piloted by Ruth Baum brought the season to a close with much success. There were so many girls out for basketball this year that the wealth of material made easy the selection of the best players. Some of last years players were still with them and will be next year, so the team had quite a few experienced players.

The season opened with a practice game with the Exiles. The Exiles are a team composed mainly of alumnae and although little misfortune came to them in the score, not daunted by this they entered into their next game with much zeal and enthusiasm. The next games were with the Y. W. C. A. girls and they were the able winners of all three of these games.

The first of their real scheduled games was the Albia game there on January 10th, in which Albia won by a score of 18 to 10.

The next game was with Hiteman there on January 20, and here our girls had a bit of hard luck again, the score being 13 to 18 in their favor.

On January the 31st the girls met Albia in another battle on the home floor and succeeded in defeating them by a score of 22 to 0.

A second game with Hiteman was played here on Feb. 23 and resulted in a victory for O. H. S. with the one sided score of 54 to 10.

So much interest was shown by the girls in basketball this year, that the season could not have met with anything but success. Although they did not win all of their games yet they have lost only a few and some very good players have been developed who will be able to carry forth the name of O. H. S. next year.

O. H. S. was very fortunate in having two splendid coaches for girls basketball this year. The first coach was Miss Blanche McCartney. Her previous experience as a coach and her note as a player on the State Teacher's College team makes her a very able coach.

Miss Lois King is the other coach. She also has had two years experience in coaching and her services along with those of Miss McCartney have made them almost indispensable to O. H. S. Much credit is due the coaches in their untiring efforts to turn out a winning team for O. H. S.

Facts

PEOPLE who want to accomplish big things go to a printer in whom they have confidence as to his integrity, ability and facilities, and trust him with the production of their printed matter. They find it pays them better in the long run than to try to buy their printing by the yard or the pound from the one submitting the lowest price.

A printer's estimate cannot represent the total cost, nor can any set of specifications cover quality of workmanship, ideas, conception or, what is of the most importance in advertising-printing that vital factor of efficiency.

The worth of your printed matter is gauged by the results it accomplishes.

A large number of our customers find it advantageous to do business with us on this basis. If it pays them might it not pay you?

"When I was shipwrecked," said the captain, "I came across a tribe of wild women who had no tongues"

"Good Gracious!" cried the fair maiden. "How could they talk."

"They couldn't," replied the old sailor. "That's what made 'em wild!"

The doctor coughed gravely. "I'm sorry to tell you," he said, looking down at the man in the bed "but there is no doubt you are suffering from small pox."

The patient turned on his pillow and looked up at his wife. "Julia," he said in a faint voice, "if any of my creators call, tell them that at last I am in a position to give them something."

"A gentleman to see you, mum."

"Tell him I'm not receiving today."

"He ain't deliverin', either mum. He's collectin'."

What time is it? Use the person who makes recording the first questions.

"Ten to," replied the polite but brief man

"Ten to what?" asked the bore.

"Ten to your own darn business."

'T WAS A STORMY NIGHT

He: "This storm may put the light out. Are you afraid?"

She: "Not if you take that cigarette out of your mouth."

THE WRONG 'ONE' PAPA

"I recon' daughter, that young man's watch must be fast."

"What makes you think so, Pa?"

"Why, when you were seeing him out the door last night, I heard him say, 'just one,' and it wasn't much past 12 o'clock

AWAY THEY WENT

Johnny N. came back from the circus very much excited. "Oh, mama," he cried as soon as he got in the house, "in spite of my pants and what do you think the elephant did? He picked 'em all up with his vacuum cleaner."

SAVED!

Mother: "Sam, you've been fighting again! You've lost four front teeth!"

Sam (taking a package from his pocket): "No I ain't, mother. Here they are."

"All right, but seeing I will come, I would like to know to what I am to do. I would not have known that the devil always has something for me to do." "Come up here and let me give you some work."

B. Morrow: "Yes, it took me about six weeks hard work to learn to drive my machine."

He: "And what have you for your pains?"

3. Morrow: "Liniment."

An American visiting in Ireland asked the man servant: "How many mails do you have here in a day?"

"Thray," said the servant, "dinner, supper and bruchust."

Father (reading letter from his son in college to mother): "Willie says he got a beautiful lamp from boxing."

Mother: "I just knew he'd win something in his athletics."

Ruth Williams: "I was out motoring the other day."

Skinny Grooms: "So?"

R. W.: "Yes, and I came to a river, but could find no means of getting my machine across."

S. G.: "Well, what did you do?"

R. W.: "Oh, I just sat down and thought it over."

Miss Porter: "Mary Beth, can you decline 'to eat'?"

M. B. Lowenberg: "Yes, I can, but I don't like to."

The new and unusual—that sparkling reality which is known as the life of each school year—is caught and held forever within the pages of Bureau built annuals. The ability to assist in making permanent such delightful bits of class spontaneity rests in an organization of creative artists guided by some 17 years of College Annual work, which experience is the knowledge of balance and taste and the fitness of doing things well. In the finest year books of American Colleges the sincerity and genuineness of Bureau Engraving quality instantly impresses one. They are class records that will live forever.

Irresistably gay are the sweaters which come in captivating colors and designs—some striped affairs, some patterned models.

Frank Clark was having quite a time getting his dues paid up for the Student Council picture.

Finally he said to Marion Brown: "Well, I gave you a dime that I know of."

"Is that the only dime you ever knew of?" questioned Don Davidson as he bolted through the door.

George Keefe and Helen Myers, very much in love, entered a crowded street car.

G. Keefe: "Do you suppose we can squeeze in here?" he asked.

H. Myers: "Don't you think, dear, we had better wait until we get home?" was the low, embarrassed reply.

Her dear little sister came into the somewhat darkened room where sat Helen Hemdal with Charles Field.

"Do you know what I think sister dear?" she asked sweetly.

"No," said his Helen, "what is it?"

"Well," said she, "I think if I were not in the room Charles would kiss you."

"You impudent girl," said Helen, "leave the room instantly."

"Papa" was becoming impatient at the lateness of the hour when he remarked "I can't see why that Frank Clark calling on Mary Lou hasn't sense enough to go home. It's near midnight."

"The dear little brother" of the family just then came in, heard his father's remark and ventured some light: "He can't go, father. Sister's sitting on him."

Dorothy Kling was passing through the corridor when she happened to step on Freddie Kidd's toes.

"Oh! exsqueeze me," she said.

"I would if I could get up there," he retorted.
